tasktools.org – collection of software

tasktools.org taskwarrior.org holidata.net flod.us About

What is tasktools.org?

This is a toolshed, or workshop, for our software development. This is the infrastructure that supports the worldwide distributed development team that brings you Taskwarrior.

Tasktools gives you access to:

- Project status - below
- Answers - Q & A for all projects
- Jira - issue tracking
- Stash - repository management and browsing
- Tinderbox - Flod-based CI testing
- PiWik - traffic analysis

Taskwarrior

2.5.1 Released task-2.5.1.tar.gz
2.6.0 Development

```
git clone https://git.tasktools.org/scm/tm/task.git

brew install task

Taskwarrior is a command-line todo list manager. It maintains a task list, allowing you to add/remove, and otherwise manipulate your tasks. Task has a rich set of subcommands that allow you to do sophisticated things. You'll find it has customizable reports, charts, GTD features, device synching, documentation, extensions, themes, holiday files and much more.

Taskserver

1.1.0 Released taskd-1.1.0.tar.gz
1.2.0 Development

git clone --recursive https://git.tasktools.org/scm/tm/taskd

```
brew install taskd

The Taskserver is a lightweight, secure server providing multi-user, multi-client access to task data. This allows true syncing between desktop and mobile clients.

VIT

1.2 Released vit-1.2.tar.gz
1.3 Development

git clone https://git.tasktools.org/scm/ex/vit.git

brew install vit

Vit is a lightweight, fast, curses-based front end to Taskwarrior.

Tasksh

1.0.0 Released tasksh-1.0.0.tar.gz
1.1.0 Development

git clone https://git.tasktools.org/scm/ex/tasksh.git

```
brew install tasksh

Tasksh is a shell command that wraps Taskwarrior commands. It is intended to provide simpler Taskwarrior access, and add a few new features of its own. The project is new, bear with us please.

Tasksh replaces the built-in `shell` command of older releases, and the bundled `tasksh` program of version 2.3.0. The former was very limited and

Timewarrior

1.0.0 Beta timew-1.0.0.beta1.tar.gz
1.0.0 Development

git clone --recursive https://git.tasktools.org/scm/tm/timew

Timewarrior is a command line time-tracking utility for use as a standalone tool, or integrated with Taskwarrior.

Visit the Timewarrior documentation home for full details.

Clog

1.3.0 Released clog-1.3.0.tar.gz
1.4.0 Development

git clone --recursive https://git.tasktools.org/scm/ut/clo

brew install clog

Clog is a colorized log tail utility. It can spot patterns in an input stream and colorize or suppress the lines. It can also decorate the lines with time- or date-stamps.

Visit the Clog documentation home for full details.

Support

Q & A	The preferred way to get help is to ask your question on the answers.tasktools.org site. This is a searchable database of questions and answers, curated by the community. There is also a good change that your question is already answered.
IRC	There is an active and well-attended #taskwarrior channel on freenode. It is logged here: https://botbot.me/freenode/taskwarrior.
Documentation	There is full online documentation to help you learn about features and usage.
Email	You can ask for help at support@timewarrior.net. We request that you first look around at the full online documentation, and perhaps answer your own question. Remember, there is only a small group of volunteers reading these.
Issue Tracking	Use our issue tracker to see if your problem is reported, fixed, or needs to be reported. Perhaps you have a clarifying example? Insight into a reported problem? Want to request a feature or improvement?

svij	bqf: good boy	3:08 am
	hows did the compiling session go?	3:08 am
bqf	the only user who actually followed along ran into problems we haven't been able to solve. so i'd say it was a huge success.	3:10 am
svij	great.	3:10 am
	so as we expected yesterday: you couldn't help ;)	3:10 am
bqf	yup :)	3:12 am
	anyway... time to get some food.	3:13 am
Lynoure	Not only is Froscon far away, but it's so soon before planned travel, and I seem to be chronicly ill currently (about to get repaired next month now), which saps my energy quite a bit.	3:29 am
	So this time just living vicariously through the tweets and irc comments :)	3:30 am
WadeWatts	hi guys, i wonder has anyone packaged tw 2.5.1 for debian jessi? As in unoffical repo i can add to my sources list?	4:26 am
Lynoure	WadeWatts: There is a 2.5.1 for sid, did that complain about version conflicts?	4:31 am
WadeWatts	right i could just use the one from sid	4:32 am
	Lynoure: thanks mate	4:32 am
Lynoure	possibly, not certainly. Quite many things can be fished from the unstable, but sometimes the dependencies are incompatible	4:33 am
	It's quite easy to build your own if that happens, though.	4:33 am
WadeWatts	well i managed to have 2.5.1 build on jessi	4:33 am
	seems to work fine so i guess that wont be a problem	4:33 am
